Want to be a part of something great? Here's what you need to know about Kids' Spooktacular 2018

Northern California Child Development, Inc. (NCCDI) and Tehama County Community Action Agency hosted Tehama County's first ever Kids' Spooktacular in October 2016! The local community was hungry for a family friendly event and was attended by over 3,000 people.

Last year, 2017, saw more than 4,000 people attend and had almost 30 vendors!

This event is free to all who attend and showcases different attractions for families to participate in like hay mazes, face painting, Reptile Guy show, bounce houses, and most importantly, trick or treating! Kids' Spooktacular even has a costume contest with 4 different categories. This year, we would like to make our Kids' Spooktacular bigger and better for Tehama County families!
